Cre@t1ve Conflict Resolutions and Peers-To-Peers School Mediation

	NOT AT ALL	NOT MUCH	SUFFICIENTLY	ENOUGH	A LOT
1. Do you think the mediator established the ground rules?
2. Did you understand all the instructions in English?
3. Was everyone treated with respect. (No blaming or putting the other person down.)?
4. Was the problem attacked, not the person?
5. Did you wait for your turn to speak; no interrupting?
6. Did you work together toward a fair solution?
7. Did you have enough time to answer questions?
8. Did you tell the truth?
9. Did you try to be objective?
10. Did you manage to reach the consensus?
